Hi Leron and Nicole,

As discussed with both of you, we would like to hold a special meeting with select "street closure" stakeholders to discuss better coordination for events on Hollywood Blvd, primarily the Chinese Theatre.

We want to sit down with the theatre and the businesses on the north side of the street, as well as the event companies that work the movie premieres.

Would the Chamber board room be available at either of these times:

Tues 9/22 - 11:00 AM

Mon 9/28 - 1:00 PM

Please advise. Thanks!

Hi everyone,

Please be advised that there will be a permitted 1st Amendment march on Hollywood Boulevard this Saturday, September 12th. Below are the details I have received from LAPD and LADOT.

Please be reminded that marches and events of this nature are protected under the First Amendment. Our office does not have a say in these events. They are a First Amendment right, and LAPD works with LADOT and the event sponsor(s) to manage the logistics in the safest, most efficient manner possible.

11/30/2015

City of Los Angeles Mail - "People and Planet over Profits" - March on Hollywood Blvd, Saturday 9/12/15

If you have questions, please direct them to Sgt. Jerrett with LAPD, whom I have CCed here. Sgt. Jerrett can also be reached at (323) 957-4519.

Thank you!

DETAILS:

- Hollywood Blvd between Highland and Orange will be CLOSED at 11:30 AM on Saturday 9/12 for setup of the stage.
- Hollywood Blvd between Vine and Ivar will be CLOSED at 12:45 PM so the participants can assemble in the street.
- The march will begin at 2:00 PM, on Hollywood Blvd from Vine west to Orange.
- The rally will last until 3:00 PM at Hollywood/Orange. The stage will be removed by 4:00 PM, and Hollywood b/w Highland and Orange will be opened at that time.
- My understanding is that Hollywood Blvd between Vine and Highland will be a HARD FULL CLOSURE. Highland will remain OPEN until the march reaches that location.
